You might be surprised that this prominent, Prospect Avenue location has a very private feel to it. Come onto the wide porch, through the front doors, and experience the warmth and charm of this spacious, gracious, 5200 plus square foot, center hall, colonial. Some of the architectural details might hint of a by-gone era, but the thoughtful renovations will tell you otherwise. Airy, light and bright with very large room sizes and space for family and friends. Gather in the kitchen around the island...enjoy dinners beside the fireplace in the formal dining room...escape to the den for some quiet reading time...enjoy a luxurious soak in the bath of your master retreat...be with the family in the over-sized great room...sneak off to the third floor zen studio and watch the snow fall through the skylight this winter...the possibilities are all yours.
